

e-shuttle VOLUME VII, number 3
May 2, 2004

Welcome to the 32nd Edition of the AVL e-shuttle!

In this issue:

- 1. WeavePoint Version 6.0 is Here
- 2. Alice Schlein
- 3. Olympics Winners Announced

1. WeavePoint Version 6.0 is Here

The long wait is over; WeavePoint Version 6.0 has arrived and oh my, is it ever a winner! Click here for details.

Current owners (version 5.0 and higher) are eligible for a $99 upgrade. New the price is $350.

2. Alice Schlein

The Alice Schlein Workshop at the AVL Weaving School has been rescheduled to November 1-3, 2004. Alice is one of the leading authorities on Network Drafting plus she's a wonderful teacher and she'll be aided by our own Jannie Taylor. Not to be missed!

Click here for details: <http://www.avlusa.com/school/html/NetworkDrafting.htm>.

3. Olympics Winners Announced

The AVL Olympics are over. Gold medal winners include one of the biggest guilds in the country: the Minneapolis Weaver's Guild and one of the smallest: Whidbey Island. Plus Gold medals were won by the Weaver's Guild of Cincinnati and the Potomac Weaver's Guild. All of these guilds qualified to win a FREE California Traveler!

Other winners - silver and bronze medal winners came from Arizona, Ohio and California. They won either a Warping Wheel or Bobbin Winder.

Congratulations to all the winners!